

Warner-Stoner Vows Are Recited in Church Rites

Ascension Lutheran Church was the scene of a wedding on Jan. 24 at 4 o'clock in which Miss Donita Warner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Warner, 4240 W. 179th St. became the bride of Merton Neil Stoner, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. K. Stoner of Applegate, Ore., formerly of Torrance.

The bride was escorted to the altar by her father. She wore a ballerina length white brocaded satin with a Chantilly lace fingertip jacket. Her illusion veil fell from a Juliet lace cap and she carried a bouquet of white roses and stephanotis.

Miss Christine Warner served as her sister's maid of honor. She was gowned in pink taffeta and carried pink roses. Douglas Irvine performed the duties of best man and ushers were James Dosland and Melvin Younker.

The Rev. L. C. Warneke officiated at the double ring ceremony. A reception was held at the church where Judy Ward registered the guests.

Immediately following the wedding the couple left for Applegate to make their home. The bride was graduated from North High school in 1958. Her husband is a 1955 graduate of Torrance High school. He is affiliated with the Stoner and Sons Poultry Supplies in Applegate.

Special guests here for the wedding were grandparents Mrs. Bertha Wald, Sioux City, Iowa; Mrs. C. Younker, Redondo; Mr. and Mrs. Bob Stiles, ruthless and destructive when asked for an "honest opinion." They mask cutting remarks with what they call "truth" and think this makes the cruellest comments ginger-peachy.

Redondo; and Rev. and Mrs. W. A. Warner of Pomona.

The next time you're asked for a frank opinion say something nice. Every person has at least ONE good thing to recommend him.

Dear Ann: A recent column dealt with unordered merchandise sent to a reader in an attempt to raise money for a "worthy charity."

Better Business Bureaus throughout the country have printed reams of information on this subject. They advise the public not to use the merchandise but NOT RETURN IT. This discourages the operators. If the victim is dunned for money he should advise the company that they will be sent a bill for storage. The way to destroy these rackets is by educating the public. Thank you, Ann. — MIAMI BETTER BUSINESS BUREAU

In Hesperia

Miss Shirley Reed spent Tuesday and Wednesday in Hesperia as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Mark Rogers.

Kitsch-Dudley Nuptials Recited at St. Anne's

St. Anne's Catholic Church in Seal Beach was the scene of the high noon wedding on Saturday uniting Miss DeLores Joan Kitsch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard G. Kitsch, 1331 227th St., Torrance, and Raymond R. Dudley Jr. Mrs. Raymond Dudley, Sr., of Newport Beach is the mother of the bridegroom.

As the wedding guests assembled, Louis Sisti, at the organ, played a background of nuptial music and accompanied Mrs. Stanford Fucich who sang "On This Day" and "Mother Dear Oh Pray for Me."

As the wedding marches were played, Miss Sarita McMinn, maid of honor, entered the church. She wore a gown of turquoise blue chiffon and carried a cascade of pink roses.

The bride came to the altar on the arm of her father. Her wedding gown was a ballerina length princess creation of white lace. A Victorian crown of net and pearls held her illusion veil and she carried a colonial bouquet of white carnations and stephanotis.

Richard Kitsch of Torrance stood as best man and ushers were Donovan E. Kitsch of Garske, N. D., and Howard W. Noonan of Lomita.

The Rev. Louis Pisk, pastor, officiated at the marriage. A reception was held at the church hall. Miss Jean Buhl, Mrs. Richard Kitsch and Mrs.

Margaret Van Der Hyden assisted with the serving. Mrs. A. J. Ramsey was in charge of the gift table and Mrs. Donovan E. Kitsch presided at the guest book.

After a honeymoon, the couple will be at home in Newport Beach.

The bride was graduated from Narbonne High school and attended Long Beach City and State colleges. She is affiliated with the Artists League and the Singers Guild of Seal Beach.

The new Mrs. Dudley is employed at the Naval Ammunition Depot in Seal Beach.

Mr. Dudley was graduated from University High in Pasadena, and USC. He is a staff engineer for a Newport Beach firm.

Out-of-town guests were Mr. Wilford Kitsch of Albuquerque, N.M.; Mr. and Mrs. Chester Atkins, Montgomery, Ill.; Mr. and Mrs. Francis Kitsch and sons of North Dakota, and Mr. and Mrs. Donovan Kitsch of Garske, N.D.
